ALL GRAINS RULE STRONG ON NEWS OF FLOOD DAMAGE.

WHEAT TAKES A SHARP SPURT UPWARDS.

July Advances 3-4c to 7-8c; Corn Rises 7-Se to 1c; Oats up 1-4c to 3-8c-Provisions Higher.

Chicago, June 13.-With coarse grains here strong and rumors of flooded fields in Kansas and Oklahoma, there was a sharp upturn to-day in the price of wheat. Compared with Saturday's close, final figures on July wheat were %6% bigher. Corn shows a gain of %6%. Oats are up Weste, and provisions 10c to 1740. WHEAT.

Sentiment in the wheat pit was bearish ouring the early part of the session. Opening quotations on July were down %c to We at $Pic to $Pic. Lower cables and imporved weather conditions were factors which served to depress prices, but perhaps the greatest factor was the report of which served to depress prices, our perhaps the greatest factor was the report of the world's shipments for the last week. While the total was about as expected, exports from America howed a decided decrease. Pit traders were inclined to consider the figures strongly indicative of the present European Indifference to American wheat.

Many bearish crop advices were received early in the day. One report, in commenting on the condition of spring wheat in the Capadian Northwest said that prospects could not be more favorable. Toward the middle of the day sentiment suddenly became bullish and prices started upward. Strength in corn and onts was largely responsible for the change of tone. Some bullish crop reports were received from Kansas and Okinhoma, telling of flooded conditions and trudicting a late harvest. Shorts were active purchasers during the latter part of the season, the market continuing strong until the close. After advancing to 8556 Market and 1014 11300 bu. The amount on passage increased 46,000 bu, and the visible supply decreased 112,000 bu. Primary receipts were 425,000 bu. compared with 465,000 bu. a year ago. Minneapolis, Puluth and Chicago reported receipts of 34 cars, against 22 last week and 452 a year ago.

CORN.

The strength manifested in corn was rather surprising in view of the volume of trade. There was a good demand for September from provision interests and September from provision interests and a prominent commission house. Shorts also were active bidders. Offerings were scattered and apparently inadequate to the demand. Possibly the source of greatest strength was a report of the Secretary of the Kannas State Board of Agriculture, claiming a bad condition of the crop throughout the State. Smaller receipts than expected were an early buil factor. The market closed well toward the top. July opened to to be higher at $500 to $5

OATS. There was a big general commission house trade in oats, with the demand largely centered in the September delivlargely centered in the September delivery, although there was also an increased demand for December. Strength of corn was the main buil factor. Distant deliveries made an advance of about a cent, but the July option showed only a moderate gain. After opening unchanged to be higher, at 194c to 195c, July ranged between 195c and 195c, closing at 195c 195c. Local receipts were 155 cars. RANGE OF FUTURES.

As the result of an error, said by Coroner McCracken to be due to carelessness, his bills for Coroner's services to St. Clair County were held up yesterday for another month by the Board of Supervisors after an item for the inquest over the body of Mrs. Catherine Roumann of Stookey Township had been attacked by Walter Eyman, the Supervisor from that township.

The custom of the Coroner's office is to collect the fees for the inquests from the relatives if they are able to pay. If not the fees are paid by the county. The inquest in the Roumann case was held by Deputy Coroner McCullough of Belleville, who collected the fees from a son and gave him a receipt. In some way, which Coroner McCracken was unable to explain last night, bills were presented both in the Probate Clerk's office and in the County Clerk's office. The bill in the County Clerk's office was for the benefit of the Coroner, while that in the Probate Clerk's office was to relmburse the county for fees to be paid to Coroner McCracken when his bill for inquests was allowed by the Supervisors. The bill in the Probate Clerk's office came to light last week.

Coroner McCracken's bill was referred to the Committee on Claims with instructions to investigate.

Deputy Coroner McCullough last evening stated that he had collected the fees in the Roumann inquest. Coroner McCracken said that he had collected the fees in the Roumann inquest. Coroner McCracken said that he supposed that the duplicate bill was the result of a clerical error.

TYNER APPEALS TO ROOSEVELT

Asks That Charges of Gross Corruption Made Against Him Be Withdrawn.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Washington, June B .- Enfeebled by the weight of years, and broken by the trou- Hannah McNamara Wants Dumages bles which have come 2pon him late in life, James N. Tyner, former Postmaster General of the United States, has appealed to President Roosevelt to withdraw the charges of "gross corruption" made against him in the White House review of the Bristow postal scandal report.

REPCKIAC SPECIAL.

New York, June 12.—Supreme Court Justice Clarke to-day denied an application by the Bristow postal scandal report.

General Tyner was only a few weeks ago acquitted of a charge of conspiracy to de-fraud the Government, and the indictments helm upon the preferred-cause calendar brought against his son-in-law, Harrison J. Barrett, were quashed after the first trial had dragged on interminably. Much pity had been excited for the old man who, in an invalid's chair, was daily who, in an invalid's chair, was daily wheeled into the courtroom. It cannot be learned what the President will do with General Tyner's letter. He did not answer the protest which General Tyner sent him after the publication of the Bristow report last year, and there is reason to believe that the President still holds to the views which he then expressed. Some officials here say that they have no idea that the President will answer this last communication.

She Took Daughter Against Court's Order.

Circuit Judge Fisher held yesterday that Mrs. Grace J. Carlin, who is being sued for divorce, was not in contempt of court for taking her 5-yesr-old daughter, Irma. from where her husband, Albert, to the temporary custody of the child was awarded, had placed her. The Judge ordered that the girl, until

The Judge ordered that the girl, until the divorce suit is tried, be left with Mrs. Carlin's mother, Mrs. Mary A. Harper, with whom Mrs. Carlin placed her. Carlin, according to the testimony, had his wife cited on a charge of contempt. Carlin placed the child with a woman who has four children of her own. Judge Fisher said that no matter how kindly disposed persons may be to a child not their own, they cannot, when they have several children of their own give the strange child the love that a relative would.

Mrs. Carlin is employed in Kansas City, and is not in a position to-take care of the child herself, it was stated.

Permission was granted Carlin to visit his daughter every Sunday, and he was ordered to pay Mrs. Harper $10 a month for the support of the child, and $40 to Mrs. Carlin to defend the suit.

HAPPENINGS IN ILLINOIS CITIES AND TOWNS POSSE WOUNDS TWO BURGLARS.

Party Was Awaiting Men Who Came to Rob Post Office at High Prairie, Mo.

FIERCE BATTLE AT DAWN.

Third Man, Leaving a Trail of Blood Behind Him, Deserts His Companions and Escapes From Pursuers.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Marshfield, Mo., June 13.-Two burglars were dangerously wounded in a fight with Postmaster John McVey and a posse. at the High Prairie Post Office, eight miles east of this place at 3 o'clock this morning. A third robber escaped, and it is believed he was slightly wounded during the fight.

The wounded men were brought bere and placed in charge of Sheriff King. They give their names as John Requa and Barry Reeves Frenchman,

The latter says his home is in Birming ham, Ala., while the former asserts that he came from Little Rock, Ark. Requa is 25 years old and Frenchman is 28. The men refuse to give the name of their accomplice.

A posse has gone in search of the third man, and it is believed he will be cap-tured by morning. The Postmaster and his neighbors, who made up the posse followed the man for more than a mile. He left a trail of blood for some distance, and this leads to the theory that he was wounded during the fight.

The Post Office at Hartville was robbed Friday night by a gang of men. This was followed Saturday night by the robbing of a store at Owden early Sunday morning. Postmaster McVey had been notified that he would probably be the next victim and was in the vicinity of the Post-Office building with a posse of neighbors, all armed with shotguns, waiting for the pos-sible arrival of the burglars. It was a trifle after 3 o'clock in the morning, and the little crowd of citizens for that night, when three men rode into the village. The men went direct to the Post-Office building, dismounted and prepared to force the outer door of the building. The crowd of citizens crept nearer and surrounded the building. Postmaster McVey called eat for the burglars to surrender,

The answer was a volley from the pis-tols of the burglars. The citizens fired in return, and a fight began. It was of short duration, however, for Requa and Frenchman soon fell, their bodies filled with shot. Under cover of the darkness the other man made his escape.

Toward the last of the eighth, and while close to the ropes, Herrera landed an awful right swing on Youngers jaw during a fierce mix-up. Crossing with his left to the same point, he deared the Italian and before Yanger could recover, two more fierce right-arm swings found the jaw, and Yanger went down.

At the count of nine he started to rise, when Herrera again tapped him on the jaw, which sent him down for good. Herrera only med his cround once or twice, when the mix-ups got too warm, and generally fought open. His clever work showed him to be at his best. SECRETARY MOODY TO SUCCEED KNOX Suggestion Meets With No De nial at White House-Navy Assistant Mentioned for Promotion.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Washington, June 13.-At the White House and elsewhere, the suggestion that the President will appoint Mr. Moody Secretary of the Navy, to succeed Attorney Knox, who will become Senator from Pennsylvania, in December, meets with no denial and with a little tacit encouragement, in that the President has nothing whatever to say about it. Everyone knows that Mr. Moody intended to drop what are for him not alto-gether congenial reins of administration at the Navy Department and return to law practice in Boston on March 4, 1905. law practice in Boston on March 4, 1965. Who will be Mr. Moody's successor is an object of much speculation. Around Washington and in New England the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Darling, has been much talked of.
